NOTICE.

The Act of Congress, "to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes," approved June 30, 1834, enforces the following penalties:

1. Attempting to reside in the Indian country, as a trader, without a license, a forfeiture of all merchandize found in his possession, and the sum of five hundred dollars.

2. The purchasing, or receiving by any person whatever, (trader or otherwise,) from the Indians in the Indian country, of any gun, trap, or other article commonly used in hunting; any instrument of husbandry, or cooking utensil, of the kind commonly obtained by the Indians in their intercourse with the white people, or ANY ARTICLE OF CLOTHING, except skins and furs, a forfeiture of the sum of Fifty dollars.

3. Any person hunting or trapping on the Indian lands, (except for subsistence, while lawfully in the Indian country,) shall forfeit the sum of Five hundred dollars, and all peltries so taken, with his guns and traps.

4. The driving of any cattle, horses, or stock on to the Indian land, to range or feed, without the consent of the tribe first had, a forfeit of one dollar for each head of such stock.

5. Any person who shall make a settlement on Indian lands, or attempt to do the same by surveying or marking a boundary, by marking trees or otherwise, shall forfeit and pay the sum of One Thousand dollars.

6. Any person who shall sell, or shall give, through any pretence whatever, any spiritous liquor, or wine, to any Indian in the Indian country, shall forfeit the sum of Five Hundred dollars; and any person who shall introduce, or attempt to introduce the same into the Indian country, shall forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars.

Publicity is in this manner given to these provisions of this Act of Congress, because it is believed that very many otherwise good citizens are unwittingly violating them, who only need to be informed what the law is, to respect and submit to it.

NOTICE IS THEREFORE HEREBY GIVEN, that the Indian Department has required strict inquiry to be made, for all violations of this Act, and particularly for all those who CUT TIMBER ON THE INDIAN LANDS, with a view of enforcing the laws.
